

MISSOULA INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT ANNOUNCES NON-STOP SERVICE TO DALLAS AND CHICAGO ON AMERICAN AIRLINES

Missoula, MT. December 18, 2017 – American Airlines and the Missoula International Airport announce the addition of new daily non-stop service from Missoula International Airport (MSO) to Dallas Fort Worth International Airport (DFW) and seasonal daily non-stop service to Chicago O'Hare International Airport (ORD). Service will begin on June 7, 2018 and is available for customers to book immediately on www.aa.com.

"We are thrilled to welcome American Airlines to Missoula and Western Montana today," said Cris Jensen, Airport Director at Missoula International Airport. "These flights would not be possible without community support. They provide an excellent opportunity for travelers to access Dallas (DFW) and Chicago (ORD) with easy connections to international destinations and a new opportunity for the rest of the country and world to witness the beauty of Montana."

U.S. Senator Jon Tester added, "Offering more routes in and out of Montana connects our state with exciting opportunities. It opens up Big Sky Country for more visitors and businesses, creating new jobs and economic opportunities."

"Tourism is one of the Treasure State's greatest economic drivers and now travelers from Dallas and Chicago will be just one stop away from everything Montana has to offer," said Steve Daines, U.S. Senator. "More flights in and out of Missoula also means more choices for Montana families and more business and job opportunities in our state."
